April talk: Hardy plants for the spring garden

John Holden of Holden Clough Nursery, and BBC Young Gardener of the Year 2012, is our April speaker.

To claim the title John underwent a gruelling process including plant identifications, quick fire questions and designing and constructing a garden from scratch in just three hours.

He grew up with gardening in his blood and his particular interest in Crocsmia has led to a nationally recognised collection of over 140 different varieties.

With his girlfriend, Kate Lawson, John runs the nursery and has won numerous awards culminating in the RHS Gold award at Tatton Park Flower Show 2011.

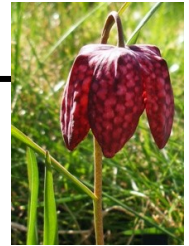

Book for Fern Cottage

Our evening visit to Fern Cottage on Thursday, 20 June costs £1—to cover the cost of refreshments.

It is helpful for the organisers to know how many people will be coming along. Please sign your name on the sheet at our next meeting and pay in advance.

If you don't have transport don't hesitate to ask one of the committee for a lift. We don't want anyone feeling left out.

Plant sale... helpers please

It's nearly time for our plant sale on Thursday, May 16.

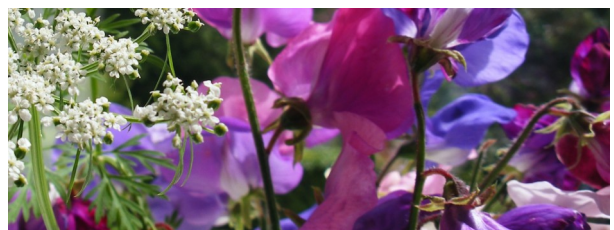

Your plants and unopened seed packets will be gratefully received. Selling will start at 7.30—no forestalling.

We are grouping plants together according to price. If you feel yours is a particularly valuable specimen please put it on the £5-and-over table.

Table posies will add to the occasion, so if you can spare any fresh blooms from your garden do bring them along.

The committee are getting ready to bake cakes but we need everyone else to get baking too!

Can you spare half an hour during the evening to help in the kitchen? If so please tell one of the committee.

Message from the chair

A big thank you to everyone who filled in a questionnaire—we had 49 replies full of interesting suggestions and ideas. The committee enjoyed your positive feedback.

One of the committee is going to give a verbal response at the April meeting and we plan to write a full summary of the results for the May newsletter.

We will take your comments on board when planning the 2014 season.
