January 2015

New season highlights

An exciting and varied programme of talks and visits awaits you.

Our first speaker on Thursday, 15 January is Hannah Wilson from the Himalayan Garden and Sculpture Park near Ripon. She will talk about plant hunting for this 20-acre woodland garden.

In May we visit the Himalayan Garden to see the results. In a spectacular setting, the garden is teaming with a fabulous array of plants cloaking the steep hillsides from the valley floor up to the house at 850ft above sea level.

Home to rare Rhododendrons and Himalayan plants, the garden nestles among mass plantings of showy hybrids.

In April we welcome Neil Timm from The Fern Nursery, who will present Astride the Garden Fence which explores wild flowers in the garden, garden escapees in the wild, and some that belong to both worlds.

Three local gardens in Gledhow Drive host our July summer evening, and in August we will have a private tour and talk at the beautiful Dove Cottage garden and nursery near Halifax.

Our October speaker is by former BBC Gardener of the Year, Sue Beesley, from Bluebell Cottage Gardens.

We put the season put to bed again for the winter with Bob Brown from Cotswold Garden Flowers.

The full list with dates of all our meetings is over the page and on our website.

Chairman's message

As you know we have streamlined the joining procedure so that we do not keep the speaker waiting and to cut down the time you spend queuing.

At the January meeting please make sure you don't wait unnecessarily at the wrong table!

So you should either be collecting your paid for membership card at the back of the room, or dropping off a cheque so that we can get your card ready for the February meeting.

If you sent a stamped addressed envelope you should have already got your card in the post. Membership closes after the February meeting.

If you are on email look out for advance copies of the committee reports, which you can read before the AGM part of the meeting.

We still need you there in person to vote for committee members and to propose and second the reports.

Serving teas and coffees at the beginning of the meeting seems to be working well, so arrive soon after 7pm for a chat over a cuppa.

Happy New gardening year,

Sandra Angadi
