Gardening club news

October 2018

Welcome to October`s newsletter. We have almost reached the end of this year`s programme and it is time to renew subscriptions for next year, so do bring your cheque books to the meeting. We do hope you will rejoin and encourage other people to join. This year, only 65 people joined, which has made it very difficult to fund the programme. It is only your support in buying raffle tickets and the proceeds of the plant sale that has enabled us to balance the books. Next year`s programme has, as always, a variety of interesting and inspiring speakers. The programme starts in January with the return of the eminent gardener and writer, Anna Pavord. She follows her talk with us with a speaking engagement at the beginning of February in USA at the GGMA Master Gardeners Symposium in Georgia!

We know that you will be inspired by this month`s speaker, the wonderful FERGUS GARRETT.

He is bringing plant`s for sale, which is another good reason for bringing your cheque book
